Through the cooperation of the teachers of the Elementary school, a Poster contest honoring "Book Week" was held in April.

Prizes consisting of books, purchased by the trustees of the Library, were awarded to the winners in each grade.

At a meeting of the trustees and librarian it was decided to convert the existing furnace to oil. It has proved to be very satisfactory for the convenience and comfort of all using the Library.

If you have any material, such as maps or books pertaining to the history of the Town, will you please consider loaning it to the Library?

Many contributions of magazines and books have been received during the past year and these have been greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGUERITE BUZZELL,

REPORT OF FIRE DEPARTMENT

Although most of the calls received were trivial, the potential is always there for a disastrous conflagration or situation.

37% of the 71 calls had no connection with actual fire. These ranged from drownings and lost persons to pumping out and filling wells. Assisting neighboring departments accounted for 9% of the calls with men and equipment going to Bow, Canterbury, Chichester, Gilmanton, Penacook, and Pittsfield. The remaining 38 calls were for 12 in buildings, 11 chimneys, 14 brush and 1 automobile. Five times we needed, asked for, and received assistance from other departments.

The new combination pumper, authorized at the last Town Meeting, arrived and passed the Underwriters' tests for a class A pumper. It was necessary to install a larger door in the station. The new kitchen was completed in time for our annual fall supper and must be seen to be appreciated. The Ladies Auxiliary deserve a great deal of credit for making this project possible. They also bought both the siren and red warning light for the new apparatus.

The members, with their own funds, purchased two gasoline fired cooking ranges through civilian defense. They are easily portable making it possible for hot food to be prepared and served anywhere. The large cooking utensils are of heavy cast aluminum worth many times the cost of procurement. The engine in our No. 2 pumper became inoperative and was replaced with a rebuilt motor. This should make it serviceable for many more years. After ten years the second hand batteries in the fire alarm system finally gave out. Fortunately I had heard of some excellent ones available in Northampton, Mass., and now have them in operation at a saving of about 83%.

To those who have not had the opportunity of seeing and understanding the Fire Department we extend an invitation to inspect at any time.

J. W. ROBINSON,
Chief

REPORT OF FOREST FIRE WARDEN

I wish to thank everyone for their efforts in reducing the losses caused by forest fires. The records show that practically all forest fires are avoidable. If each of us would be alert and extremely careful this unnecessary loss would constantly continue a downward trend.

The Town Dump has already proved its worth and the excellent care given it by Mr. Richardson should be commended.

Commendation is also due the members of the fire department as it has been their practice to make no charge for fighting brush fires if the time out is less than an hour. This means that the cost of extinguishment and certainly the loss of valuable property can be minimized by prompt reporting of any fire. Don't try to control it yourself and report it only when beyond your efforts — CALL THE FIRE DEPARTMENT FIRST and then fight it.

J. W. ROBINSON,
Forest Fire Warden

YOU CAN HELP PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Twenty-five percent of all forest fires in New Hampshire are caused from careless debris burning — brush, paper, leaves, grass, etc. Most of them are started without the required permit from the local forest fire warden. The cost of extinguishing these fires annually runs into large sums of money.

According to law, responsible parties must pay the cost of putting them out. In addition, violators may be subject to court prosecution with fines running as high as ($200) two-hundred dollars.

In the interest of fire prevention why not eliminate burning at home? Use your town dump. It has been set up for your personal convenience. It provides a suitable place for the disposal of dangerous inflammable waste material and other useless items which accumulate around the home and local stores; brush, etc. cut on your property. Eliminate the hazard of burning yourself. It will be easier for you — personally and financially.

If, however, you do burn on your premises:

1. Secure a permit from your local forest fire warden — the law requires it.
2. Be sure to properly supervise your burning. Don't leave it.
3. Make certain your fire is DEAD OUT before leaving it.

Save yourself much possible difficulty. Use your town dump.

Number of local fires — 3

Number of acres burned — $6\frac{1}{4}$

Number of permits issued — 105

CIVIL DEFENSE

Reorganization of the complete local system was completed to follow the directives along the lines designated by the new State Survival Plan. Several new unit leaders were necessary and those accepting these posts are greatly appreciated.

During the year a course in radiological defense was taken by approximately thirty people. Mr. Andy Jagemann was appointed Radeff Officer with two teams set up in under him, one on the Ridge, the other in the village area. Each team has the necessary equipment for the detection and measuring of radioactive fallout and local contamination. These teams are meeting every other month to receive further information and instruction as it becomes available as well as to keep familiar with the procedures and equipment.

A 5 KW 115 volt generator was secured from surplus properties. If needed it can be set up in any location though primarily it will give standby service at the fire station which is also civilian defense headquarters.

We are trying to make this organization completely understood so that in the event of anything occurring which necessitated its activation the operations would function smoothly and efficiently.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Loudon:

This year has been a period of great awakening by public citizens at large throughout our country. Increasingly the people are becoming active in matters pertaining to education. School buildings are being constructed; taxes for schools are rising; controversies are becoming more and more serious; local, state, and national government are now responding more and more to clamors of the people who are beginning to make themselves heard. More is being written and spoken about the serious problems of education today than at any time in our lifetime. Out of this maelstrom of controversy and refining fire will come some hard, basic fundamental truths about education, truths which we as a people need to be aware of.

Each community must act on these educational issues. There is no way to avoid this responsibility, because the American people believe in education and know it to be one of their greatest assets. And there is hope in the hearts of us who so strongly advocate good schools for our children.

The New Hampshire General Court is now in session. On its agenda are numerous bills pertaining to education. It is the solemn duty of our citizens in every community in our state to know what these bills mean. What effects will be produced by their passage into law? What is the underlying intent of these proposed laws? Do any of these proposed changes drastically modify our thinking and our philosophy about public and private education? Surely the people should know!

Now many lay people have little time to attend legislative hearings that are held in Concord. This places all the more responsibility upon school boards and school officials. Our State Board of Education each week alerts its superintendents about proposed legislation that will have impact upon our schools and our present system of public education. Thus it is possible to know in advance when such hearings are to be held. The State School Boards Association also is active on matters of this nature. Local school boards are notified either by superintendents or state school boards of the time and place of such hearings. I cannot emphasize too much the need for local school boards to pay attention to these notices and to plan to attend these hearings. Failure to do so may later cause regrets.

Not all legislation is good. Every proposed law should be examined for its intent and purpose, and be analyzed in advance of its passage to make sure that it does not adversely affect our system of free public education.

I hope that our local people will maintain their continuing interest in their schools, and will carry on during these crucial times; to the end that our schools may become stronger, and our system of public education may serve even better to meet the needs of our youth.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM B. HOUNSELL,
Superintendent of Schools

SUMMARY

Proposed Loudon Zoning Ordinance

What it Does:

1. It protects your property and your living pleasure. Without some kind of protective ordinance, the land next to you can be put to any use and cause you great loss on your home investment. It guarantees to prospective property investors the same protection.
2. It protects you from damage caused by establishment of a noisy, noxious or dangerous business next to you.
3. It protects life and health and it reduces fire danger by providing that new dwellings conform to minimum building and sanitary requirements.
4. It does permit the establishment of industry and business in the town.
5. By protecting property it encourages people to come to Loudon and build good homes.
6. By encouraging good new homes, that increase the taxable property in town, it will reduce the share of town expenses that you have to pay in taxes.
7. It provides for orderly development of lake frontages for summer residents which will decrease the tax burden on all property owners.

What it Does Not Do:

1. It does not apply to present buildings or uses.
 2. No permit is required for buildings not used for dwelling purposes and costing less than one thousand dollars ($1000.00.)
 3. It does not prevent a man from building his own house or living in it during construction.
 4. It will not work a hardship on anyone. The Board of Adjustment has authority to make any reasonable adjustment.
 5. It does not prohibit the establishment or continuance of home industry, such as road-side stands, home-craft shops, beauty-parlors, professional offices, etc.
- Finally the ordinance can be amended or changed by vote at any regular Town Meeting.
